Module 4	Topic: Priority Population Health Problems: The role of research, quality improvement and evidence-based practice.
Read | Absorb | Reflect	✓ Johns Hopkins Nursing Evidence Based Practice: Model and Guidelines; Chapter 3 ✓ Meara JG et al, (2008) Global Surgery 2030: evidence and solutions for achieving health, welfare, and economic development. Lancet ✓ Odinkemelu, DS, et al. (2021). An Assessment of Anesthesia Capacity in Liberia: Opportunities for Rebuilding Post-Ebola. Anesth Analg. 132:1727–37
Do	✓ Listen to the pre-recorded lecture on Priority Population Health Problems: The Role of research, QI and EBP. https://vimeo.com/1134727383?fl=ip&fe=ec ✓ Complete Quiz #2
Connect	✓ EBP Project Huddle: Break up into your working groups and identify the practice problem that you want to learn more about through a scoping review of the literature.
Module Format	✓ Friday, November 27, 2026 o Quiz #2 based on Module 3 Content o 8 am to 9 am: Meet in class to listen to the pre-recorded Module 4 lecture on Priority Population Health Problems: The role of research, quality improvement and evidence-based practice. o 9 am to 10 am: Small group discussions | Prepare to report out on the priority Liberian anesthesia problem you would like to work on for your EBP project. ✓ Wednesday December 2, 2026 o 1 to 2 pm: In-class, zoom presentation and discussion o 2 to 3 pm: Small group work | Introduction to the computer lab and database searching.